

Introduction/Business Problem

The Toronto government wants to establish a public body to oversee various types of businesses in the food industry, such as: Different types of Restaurants, Bakery, Breakfast Spot, Brewery and Café with fresh.

The government then needs to know what neighboring areas and what concentration of different commercial establishments in the neighborhoods to create their action plan for setting up the new food inspection department.